

Sensory play ideas

What is Sensory Play?

Sensory play includes any activity that stimulates your young child's senses: touch, smell, taste, sight and hearing. Sensory activities and sensory tables facilitate exploration and naturally encourage children to use scientific processes while they play, create, investigate and explore. Spending time stimulating their senses helps children develop cognitively, linguistically, socially and emotionally, physically and creatively.

Spring Sensory Play

make an impression with nature's stampers

Sensory play websites

www.naturalbeachliving.com

www.littlebinsforlittlehands.com

www.lemonlimeadventures.com

www.pinterest.co.uk

www.learning4kids.net

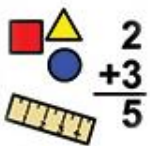

www.theimaginationtree.com

www.equals.co.uk

Scroll down the home page until you see 'The white board room, free resources' then click to access free educational resources to support SEN learners.

Maths

English

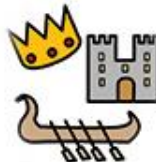

Science

PSHE

Geography

History

Design & Technology

Art & Design

Computing

RE

PMLD

You will find a wide range of resources including; downloadable sensory stories, comprehension work, interactive games, maths and reading challenges and much more.